Newsletter 20 – February 9th 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

Safer Internet Day

Thank to Mr Johnson and our Digital Leaders for promoting Safer Internet Day. The assemblies and lessons have been very informative and will help to remind our children how to stay safe on the internet.

World Book Day

Next half term we will be celebrating World Book Day. Miss Cocker and Miss Davison have organised a wonderful theme day for all pupils to take part in. As part of this theme day, we are asking children to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. We look forward to seeing all the wonderful costumes!

During this week the book fair will be visiting our school. The book fair will be based in the Dining Hall and parents and pupils will be able to access the book fair through the Breakfast Club door. More information will follow after half term.

ROBLOX Warning

As many of you may be aware from the news, some concerns have been raised by Kent Police about the online game ROBLOX. All schools in our Local Authority have received a safety warning from the Metropolitan Police regarding ROBLOX and we felt it was important to share this safety warning with our parents / carers.

Parents are advised to:

- Check your child's ROBLOX account, as well as any other online games that they play
- Check that your child's online friends are known
- Speak with your child about staying safe online and monitor their usage
- Raise any concerns with the school

For more information and advice for parents / carers go to <https://www.safeinternet.org.uk/advice-centre/parents-and-carers>

Year 2

Thank you to all our parents and carers who joined us for the Year 2 Exit Point. The children have thoroughly enjoyed the topic Ahoy There Matey! and were excited to share this with their families. We hope you enjoyed it as much as they did.

I hope you all have a lovely half term break and I look forward to seeing you all when we return to school on Monday 19th February.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.

Newsletter 21 – February 23rd 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

I would like to welcome everybody back to school for another half term. I hope that you all had a lovely week spending time with your family and friends.

IPC Units

All classes have started their new IPC units this week with an exciting entry point. Year 5 have been testing planes, Year 2 have been designing and making shields and Year 1 have watched a circus DVD and are excited about their circus workshop next week.

The new topics for each year group are...

- Nursery Transport
- Reception Treasure
- Year 1 The Circus is Coming to Town!
- Year 2 King of the Castle
- Year 3 Paintings, Pictures and Photographs
- Year 4 Temples, Tombs and Treasure
- Year 5 Making Things Go

Year 6 will continue with their novel focus and will also be studying a Story Spinner unit of work.

World Book Day

Next Thursday, we will be celebrating World Book Day. Miss Cocker and Miss Davison have organised a wonderful theme day for all pupils to take part in. As part of this theme day, we are asking children to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. We look forward to seeing all the wonderful costumes!

Book Fair

The book fair will be available next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 3.15pm. It will be based in the Dining Hall and parents and pupils will be able to access the book fair through the Breakfast Club door in the Infant Playground.

School Values

This half term we will be focussing on the value of being UNDERSTANDING. Next week, a letter will go out, along with a red slip that we would like you to fill in when you see your child being understanding. This slip should then be given to your child's class teacher and will be displayed within the school. Our RESPECTFUL display looked wonderful, with so many red slips being brought into school. We would like even more for our UNDERSTANDING display!

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.
